

PALM COAST PARKS & RECREATION

VIRTUAL EVENTS & ACTIVITIES

Mar. 18 - Apr. 30, 2020

Activity Entry Template:

Title

Short Description

Instructor:

Props Used:

Location:

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

Adults/Seniors

Employee Spotlight

The Palm Coast Recreation Department would like to highlight the dedicated people behind the scenes in the department. A functioning business would not be functioning if it did not have great employees. We know we hire the best of the best and want to share some of what makes our employees who they are. The Recreation Department will be doing an employee spotlight weekly where you get to learn about our talented staff and in addition to their day jobs, our employees have a wide array of hobbies, talents, and interests that make them truly unique.

Instructor: TBD

Props Used: TBD

Location: All Parks & Rec facilities

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: Scheduled per location

Golf Tip Links

Cooped up and can't play Golf? Pull out your tablet or smart phone and check out these links for golfing tips. Learn tips on the game such as: wedge shots, hook shots, how to use a chipper and more.

Instructor: selected links to instruction

Props Used: none

Location: smart phone or tablet

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: none

Book Club on Zoom

Host our Book Club as usual but instead of coming into the CC we will set up a zoom video chat. The free Zoom account allows up to 100 people to be on a group video chat for 40 mins.

Instructor: Kit or Mike

Props Used: Computer

Location: anywhere a computer and internet connection can be found.

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: April 3rd. Same as the originally scheduled book club

Netflix Party

Netflix is now allowing people to watch movies in chat groups together at Netflixparty.com. We could organize a viewing party.

Instructor:

Props Used:

Location:

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

Can you fold a piece of paper? Then let's make something fun.

Paper Butterfly

Have some pretty colored copy paper or some magazines? Here's a craft to welcome spring time and have a pretty house decoration when you're through.

Instructor: Kit

Props: colored copy paper or old magazines, string or embroidery thread, ruler, scissors and glue

Location: virtual - pre-recorded step by step

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Paper Bracelet box

With a little planning and pre-marking your fold lines, you can turn a greeting card and sheet of cardstock into a lovely bracelet gift box.

Instructor: Kit

Props: large greeting card or scrapbook cardstock, ruler, scissors and glue.

Location: virtual - pre-recorded step by step

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Paper miniature purse

Want to make a fun miniature purse for a decoration piece? All you will need is a 6"x6" piece of colorful, preferably patterned paper and a little patience.

Instructor: Kit

Props: lightweight patterned scrapbook paper or Sunday circular, ruler, scissors and glue.

Location: virtual - pre-recorded step by step

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Heart Greeting Card

Everyone needs a little extra love right now. With 4 sheets of white copy paper and another 4 sheets of your color choice, you can make this fun 3-D card.

Instructor: Kit

Props: 4 sheets of white copy paper, 4 sheets of colored paper, scissors and glue.

Location: virtual - pre-recorded step by step

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Stuck inside with meals at home, make your table special.

Napkin folding:

Here's some fun ways to spruce up that dinner table and spread some cheer.

Flower

Instructor: Kit

Props: paper or cloth napkins, color of your choice

Location: virtual - pre-recorded step by step

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Silverware sleeve

Instructor: Kit

Props: paper or cloth napkins, color of your choice

Location: virtual - pre-recorded step by step

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Crown

Instructor: Kit

Props: paper or cloth napkins, color of your choice

Location: virtual - pre-recorded step by step

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Do you like to actually hold playing cards? Here's some games for that!

Card games to play by yourself

Alexander the Great

Simple yet challenging, not a winner every time but you do get three re-deals.

Instructor: Kit

Props: 1 deck of playing cards, no jokers needed

Location: virtual - pre-recorded Instructions and short demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Idiot's Delight (nothing personal, I didn't name the game) - FILMED & POSTED

Easy to play, not as easy to win but fun nonetheless. Takes up very little space, I used to play it on my tray table on the airplane.

Instructor: Kit

Props: 1 deck of playing cards, no jokers needed

Location: virtual - pre-recorded Instructions and short demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Financier

For the card player with a lot of patience and determination. Winning is not common, but with the luck of the cards, it is possible..

Instructor: Kit

Props: 2 decks of playing cards, minus the jokers and aces, large table space to spread out play.

Location: Virtual - pre-recorded. Instructions and short demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Card games to play with friends

Spite and Malice (2 player)

Fun challenge of luck and wits between two players.

Instructors: Kit & Sherry

Props: 2 decks of playing cards, with the jokers, plus 4 extra jokers.(can be different card backs)

Location: Virtual - pre-recorded. Instructions and demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Squeak (2-4 player)

Basically a game of double solitaire. Each player having a Squeak pile that he/she tries to play out before his/her opponent does. Speed really counts in this one.

Instructors: Kit & Sherry

Props: 2 decks of playing cards (one for each player) Minus the jokers

Location: Virtual - pre-recorded. Instructions and demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Oh Heck (3 - 4 players)

A silly game for sharpening your trick taking skills without being too serious about it. Each hand you are told what suit is trump and after viewing your hand, you try to predict how many tricks you can win. You must be exact or no points. Each hand dealt has one less than the hand before, ie 7, 6, 5, 4 down to only 1 card! What should you predict if you hold the deuce of trump? Silly but fun.

Instructors: Kit & Sherry

Props: 1 deck of playing cards, no jokers needed

Location: virtual - pre-recorded Instructions and short demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Oh Sugar (4-6 players)

The adult version of crazy eights with a little bit of Uno mixed in. Jokers & twos can zap your opponent & make him/her skip a turn & pick up cards. The Objective is to get rid of all your cards first!

Low score wins.

Instructors: Kit & Sherry

Props: 2 decks of playing cards, jokers needed (add a 3rd deck if 6 playing)

Location: virtual - pre-recorded Instructions and short demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Ninety Nine (4-6 players)

This is a 75cent card game. All players must bring 3 quarters to play. Each time you lose a hand, you forfeit a quarter, you have one additional play on your honor (if you've lost all your quarters) before you are eliminated from the game. The last player in the game without being eliminated wins the pot of quarters.

Instructors: Kit & Sherry

Props: 2 deck of playing cards, (might need 3 if six players)

Location: virtual - pre-recorded Instructions and short demo

Suggested Days/Times: available by link

Teens

2 Hour Film Fest

We would pitch this to the public like this:

“Get your smartphones ready and join us for 2 hours of movie making fun. At noon on Wednesday (or whenever we decided) we will give you your instructions and the parameters and you will have 2 hours to write, film, direct and edit your own 5-10 minute movie. Then upload it to facebook and/or instagram using #2hourfilmfest and tag @Palmcoastrec We'll award winners in a few categories.”

The idea is people have to make a short “movie” and everyone will be doing it at the same time. We'll give some on-the-spot parameters to ensure folks aren't recycling an old video they made previously. So for example we could say the parameters are: Movie must contain a ball, someone in the movie must say the line “That's crazy”, at some point viewers must be able to look through a window in the movie. (These are just examples and we can change them up if we do this more than once). The instructions could be filmed with someone telling everyone the instructions or it could simply be written out. I prefer filming the instructions since it is a film contest. We could create a Facebook event for it as a better way to promote it and get everyone working at the same time.

Instructor: Mike

Props Used: None

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: unsure

Rube Goldberg Machine Contest

We could film our own Rube Goldberg Machine, then ask others to post videos of their own machines tagging us and using hashtags.

This is a Rube Goldberg machine: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qybUFnY7Y8w>

Instructor: Mike

Props Used: All sorts of various random items from the closets.

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: unsure

LEGO Stop Motion Movie

Challenge people to create a stop motion movie using LEGOs (or other inanimate objects)

Instructor: Mike

Props Used: LEGOs and other stuff

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: Late next week

Youth

Obstacle Course Challenge

Show folks how they can create their own simple obstacle course around their home or in their yard with a few objects and a little creativity. Create a course by having participants run around a tree, do 5 jumping jacks, dribble a soccer ball down and back, etc.

Instructor: Mike

Props Used: Random objects from the youth closet

Location: Community Center and playground

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

Series: Games to play at home with your Kids

This would be a series of several ideas for mostly active games to do at home with your kids. We would probably have a few ideas per video. The ideas are endless but some of the games we could include: hide and seek, Footgolf in the front yard using trees as the holes, poop deck, create an obstacle course, deck of cards workout, H-O-R-S-E, Around the World, Balloon afloat, Down-Down Toss, 50-yard scream, Volcanoes & Craters, Dead Fish, Honey Do you Love me?, Don't show your teeth, Charades, Scavenger hunt, Improv games: (Story one-word at time, story one-sentence at time, Mad libs, Moving bodies, Sound Fx, Someone else's arms, Categories, ABC, New Choice), Fold the Blanket, etc.

Instructor: Mike (or anyone who knows a game to demo)

Props Used: various

Location: Community Center or someone's house

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

Science is Fun

Watch a detailed tutorial of do's and don'ts with some popular science experiments!

Instructor: Ashley

Props Used:

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

Cooking is Fun!

Enjoy prepping delicious dishes. Cooking Vocabulary & kitchen safety practices.

Instructor: Ashley

Props Used: pantry

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

Take Home Tennis

Even away from the court, you can learn and develop your tennis skills. Keep the rally going at home!

Instructor: Michael, Sky, Jorika

Props Used: 23" Tennis Racquet and Red Ball

Location: Tennis Center or Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: March 25, 26 or 27

Toddlers

Teddy Bear Picnic & Play

A virtual program where toddlers are encouraged to get their favorite teddy bear and enjoy a story along with a craft.

Instructor: Ashley

Props Used: Beary 7 Books

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

Arts and Crafts

A short series of detailed instructions on fun and creative crafts for toddlers.

Instructor: Ashley

Props Used: Art supplies

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming:

All/Family

Post-It Note Treasure Hunt

We demonstrate how you can send your kids/spouse/friends on a treasure hunt using clues on post-it notes. You have a starting point where a clue on a post-it note leads you to another post-it note with another clue and you continue until you arrive at the "treasure"

Instructor: Anyone (Mike)

Props Used: post-it notes

Location: Community Center

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: Unsure. Anytime next week.

Facebook Challenges

We create challenges for people to complete and post to Facebook/Instagram and tag us and hashtag. Or post as a photo in the comments. Ideas include: Show us your best indoor blanket fort, show us your best magic trick, show us your best optical illusion, show us your best practical joke, tell us your best joke, give your kid the COVID-19 home test (which is really just tickling them).

Instructor: Anyone

Props Used: None really

Location: Facebook

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: unsure

Virtual Art Show

Create a Facebook event for April 22 (the original date of our art show). Have people post their art projects on the Facebook event page.

Instructor: None

Props Used: None

Location: Facebook

Suggested Days/Times for Filming: N/A