ADAPTED LEARN-TO-SWIM TRAINING FOR AQUATIC AND THERAPY PROFESSIONALS

Tana B. Carson, Ph.D., OTR/L
Assistant Professor of
Occupational Therapy, Florida
International University
Tania Santiago Perez

Associate Teaching Professor and Program Director, Florida
International University

Swim lessons are critical for children with disabilities who may have greater difficulties learning to swim and higher rates of drowning. While most aquatic professionals are well-trained in traditional learn-to-swim instruction methods, many report a lack of training in activity modifications or accommodations needed to teach swimming and water safety to children with disabilities. This workshop will analyze the types of training currently available and identify levels of competency in areas where more training is desired/needed within adapted learn to swim programs.

The Florida Recreation and Park Association recognizes the diversity that exists within our profession, our membership, and those attending FRPA events. As a participant, we want you to enjoy your time at this event. We ask that you join us in encouraging and maintaining the highest professional standards possible at all functions within this event. Attendees, presenters, vendors, and staff at FRPA events are expected to conduct themselves at all times in a courteous, professional, and respectful manner. Attendees are required to abstain from behavior that reflects poorly on their agency, the Florida Recreation and Park Association, and the membership. Such conduct includes, but is not limited to, actions disrupting the businesslike atmosphere, harassment, discrimination, inappropriate language, failing to comply with all local, state, and federal laws, and activities that endanger self and others. While we do not anticipate these challenges, we do want to be transparent regarding our commitment to assuring a safe and enjoyable environment for all event participants and let you know that misconduct will be addressed with you individually and/or with your employer. Attendees, presenters, vendors, and staff who do not comply with this code of conduct at any event may be removed from said event and barred from attending all future FRPA sponsored or co-sponsored events.

I HAVE READ AND AGREE TO THE POLICIES REGARDING THE 2023 FRPA ANNUAL CONFERENCE AND INSTITUTES.
