

Enhancing the Value of Citizen Boards

Adding value to our parks department, our elected leaders and our community.

Reflect – Renew – Revive
FRPA 2016 State Conference

John F. McCarthy
Executive Director
Sarasota County Openly
Plans for Excellence
Sarasota, Florida

What do I know about boards?

- * Sarasota County Historical Commission (1979)
- * Historical Society Board of Directors/President
- * Library Advisory Board
- * Parks and Recreation Advisory Council
- * FRPA Foundation Board of Trustees/President
- * Goshen College Sarasota Advisory Board
- * SCOPE 501c3 Board of Directors
- * 35 years of positive experience with advisory boards

2

Why I am here...

- * I believe that parks and recreation, heritage, libraries and arts influences the community in many positive ways
- * I believe that advisory boards are an essential compliment to well-run recreation parks and recreation department
- * I believe that by engaging best practices that your value to the community is enhanced

3

Community indicators of the world around us

Domains of well being:

- * Education
- * Economy
- * Environment
- * Transportation
- * Recreation and Culture
- * Civic Engagement
- * Health

7

Community indicators of the world around us

Look what parks, recreation and arts can do!

- * Education – early learning, after school, creativity
- * Economy – tournaments, special events, camping
- * Environment – green space, nature centers, wildlife
- * Transportation – trails, hubs for services, marina
- * Recreation and Culture – parks, festivals, art, heritage
- * Civic Engagement – voting, library use, social space
- * Health – physical health, mental health, rehabilitation

Copyright 2014, John F. McCarthy

8

The Triangle of Success working together for the community

Elected City Commission

9

The role of an advisory board

- * Provide insight based upon experience and engagement
- * Provide valuable information to elected leaders
- * Provide support and input to the director
- * Participate in activities and events
- * Engage with the community – plan for the future
- * Serve as an ambassador for parks in the community

10

An Advisory Board is not...

- * ... a directive board
- * ... an oversight committee
- * ... a municipal services taxing board
- * ... a “friends of parks” organization

Copyright 2014 John F. McCarthy

11

Bringing value to your elected leaders

- * Gather citizen input
- * Filter smaller items with staff
- * Provide valuable insight on larger issues
- * Shift from “service” to “engagement”

12

Bringing value to the parks department

- * Bring community input to the table
- * Hear stories, the good, the bad and the ugly
 - * Rev. Don Roberts
- * Provide insight on difficult or sensitive issues
- * Review revenue plans and fee changes
- * Assist in preparation for accreditation review

13

Bringing value to the parks department...

- * Review Concept Plans and Master Plans
- * Bring forth new ideas and a diversity of perspectives
- * Be an ambassador for parks and recreation
- * Provide opportunities for staff to hone presentation skills

Photo courtesy City of Hollywood 14

Bringing value to the community

- * Share information about events and programs
- * Attend special events and dedications
- * Listen to community needs
- * Seek solutions to complex challenges
- * Help build a stronger community!

Photo Courtesy City of Hollywood 15

Let's look at some examples

Historical Commission

- * A "roll up their sleeves" advisory board
- * Many of the members were volunteers
- * Project committees conducted research, presented findings
- * A signature role – historical markers
- * Highly valued by the County Commissioners
- * Recognized by the public for markers

16

Provide value!

Commissioner Shannon Staub asked:

"what did the advisory board have to say?"

I quickly learned that nothing would get approval from Commissioner Staub without the input of the advisory board.

Advisory board comments were included in each board memo, particularly consent items lacking presentations.

17

Shannon's STARS Students Taking and Active Role

"Let's seek the voice of our young people..."

- * Leadership program by non-profit Community Youth Development
- * Trains high school students to be active board members in non-profits and government
- * Full participation rights including voting
- * Multi-year STARS are some of the most engaged members!

18

Seek to understand... the needs of the future...

- * Welcome youth to the conversation
- * Engage your teen board members
- * Reach out to youth during planning initiatives
- * Listen to your own children's comments on parks

Photo Courtesy City of Hollywood

19

Typical agenda items

- * Park plans
- * Revenue plans/fee adjustments
- * Land acquisition priorities and workplans
- * Park policies/operating hours
- * Requests for alternative uses
- * Open to the public
- * Staff reports

20

Sarasota County: A Case Study!

- * Long tradition of advisory boards
- * Deliberately bring varied voices to the table
- * The way we do things

21

Getting to know your parks

Raymond Verheul said "I'm going to visit all the parks"

- * Took the map of parks and treated it like an Audubon Bird "Life List" – checking off parks as he visited them. (almost 200 parks at that time!)
- * Amazed at what he discovered, served several years and then transitioned to volunteer with the Friends
... do you have a parks "life list"?

22

Experiencing the parks

Millie Small said "John let's have lunch one day a month in a different park."

- * Built a relationship between board chair and director
- * A chance to observe "life in the park" together
- * A chance for each to learn from one another
Picnic Lunch + Park Discussion = Time Well Spent!

23

Getting to know the parks...

- * Host advisory board meetings at various parks
- * Learn about new areas and observe the parks in operation
- * Allow park staff to lead tours or present
- * Example: Annual City of Venice Bus Tour sunshine – wish list - priorities

24

Lifelong Learning

Terry Redman said "lets take the whole advisory board to the FRPA conference"

So we did!

- * Stay in the sunshine!
- * Learn together – discover innovation – understand the trends
- * See and experience new products

25

Benefiting from collaborations

Dren Geer said... "lets hold joint meetings with other advisory boards"

So we did!

- * Historical commission
- * Senior Advisory Committee
- * Keep Sarasota Beautiful Advisory Committee
- * Municipal advisory boards

26

Benefiting from collaborations

What happened when we did meet?

- * Historical commission – proper treatment of historical resources
- * Senior Advisory Committee – aquatics, fitness for all
- * Keep Sarasota Beautiful Advisory Committee – ban on smoking at beaches
- * Municipal advisory boards – land acquisition needs

27

Governance

- * Expectation of attendance and participation
- * Skillful sequencing of important items
- * Seek public comment – avoid direct debate
- * Identify guests at start of meeting
- * Efficient/effective staff participation
- * Written motions for greatest clarity of intent

28

Run a professional meeting see your value increase

Jon Thaxton – County Commissioner

“I never attended a more professionally conducted advisory board meeting”

- * Follow the agenda in an expeditious and courteous manner - Kevin Bruning, Historic Preservation Chair
- * Properly handle motions, discussions, amendments and vote taking
- * Ensure all have a chance to speak

29

What advisory boards should expect from staff

- * An annual calendar of meeting dates, time and places
- * Meeting minutes well in advance of the next meeting
- * Being kept informed of initiatives and issues
- * An action list detailing intentions of staff and/or the board

30

Sequencing for success

- * Avoid advisory boards advocating ahead of the agency (or elected leaders) nor too far behind the need of the issue
- * Help members understand that issues emerge quickly, requiring staff to insert additional items into the agenda as needed
- * Understand the sequencing of the city administration's agenda process to ensure timely input to enhance staff reports

31

Celebrating success – creating an annual report

Nancy Pike* said “John can you help the library board with their annual report?”

- * Assemble content as a group, with support of staff
- * Utilize a simple format
- * Always keep an eye on the future...

... and the advisory board said,

“wow look what we have done and have “in the works!”

* Miss Nancy from Romper Room

32

Annual Report Framework

- * Members – appointed/served/departed within year
- * Meetings – how many held, where
- * Joint Meetings – allied advisory boards
- * Training – orientation, sunshine, seminars
- * Major Discussion Items – park plans, policy changes
- * Special Events attended
- * Trends – future issues/concerns/opportunities

33

What concerns do you have about your advisory board?

- * Issues?
- * Concerns?
- * Opportunities?

34

Worksheet

- * What steps can you take to improve your advisory board relations?
- * 5 minutes and be prepared to report out

35

Engage & Experience: a key role for advisory board members

- * Attend and be visible at special events and programs
- * Actively seek input from friends, neighbors and colleagues
- * Be a user of the parks
- * Look for innovation when they travel – bring home great ideas!
- * Share what they have learned – be an ambassador!

36

Help the board understand how important their role is!

- * Parks are vital to your community
- * Community input is vital to good parks
- * They serve as an important link to the community
- * Elected leaders, professional staff and citizen advisory boards form a triangle of success!

37

Thank you for what you do!

Photos courtesy City of Hollywood, Florida

38
