ESTABLISH LEADERSHIP THROUGH CIVIC ENGAGEMENT IN COMMUNITY BUILDING AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PUBLIC REALM

Strategy C1

FRPA will be a recognized leader of community building through civic engagement, membership engagement, proactive public safety, partnerships with state and national planning and design excellence associations and the contractors who build parks in the public realm.

1

Utilize Agency Directors to identify Community Building Champions on their staff who are active with perspective partner organizations; and obtain lists of Foundation & Park Advisory Boards.

2

Engage public safety agencies at state and local level in community building. Focus: preventative public safety.

Strategy C4

Adopt best practices and sustainable models to maintain leadership in community building through civic engagement and participation in the development of the public realm.

3

Develop a Community Building Challenge for agencies to include tool kit materials with suggested initiatives and implementation suggestions for those initiatives.
