LOCATION: Virtual | DATES: Up to You

You've Hired Them, Now What? The annual Summer Camp training series is going virtual in 2021 allowing you access to pre-recorded training sessions to use, when convenient for you to onboard your summer camp teams.

In addition to the pre-recorded sessions, you will receive links to valuable downloadable resources for your camp teams.

Virtual downloads will be available by May 24th

Content will include:

- ⇒ Importance of Summer Camps and the Important Role Your Camp Team Plays (30 minutes)
- ⇒ Camp Basics (1 hour) – creating camp lesson plans for everyone, connecting without touching, toolbox of success, bag of tricks, and camp culture.
- ⇒ Camp Behavior (1 hour) – no bull(ying) here, common behavior influencers and triggers, beyond discipline, and fostering positive behavior.
- ⇒ Working with Special Needs Campers (2 hours) - Camp time is coming and we welcome families of all abilities. How we welcome the families and prepare for the campers is key to our success and safety. Adapting games and activities to meet the needs of varying abilities works to everyone's benefit.
- ⇒ Games (1 hour) – Are you providing instruction for your summer games in a way that allows your campers to understand and most importantly get the most from game time? This session will provide some hints on how to accomplish that, as well as provide you with ideas for games that help transition from outside to inside, active to quiet time, and all the in-betweens.
